

Impetus to Farming in Arimbur Grama Panchayath, Thrissur

A discussion on the development of farming in Arimbur Panchayath, Thrissur was held at the College on 05 Jan 2016. Kudumbasree workers, farmers, Kerala Sasthra Sahithya Parishath (KSSP) and other NGO workers of Arimbur Panchayath were the active participants in the programme. Shri. Ravunni, well known Poet and social activist was the programme coordinator. The discussion was chaired by Dr. K. Vidyasagaran, Dean, College of Forestry and faculty of the College viz., Dr. T. K. Kunhamu, Dr. P. S. John and other eminent subject experts spoke on the occasion. Farmers were given a detailed skill development and knowledge enhancement orientation on various new advancements in farming by the subject experts. Dr. T. K. Kunhamu, Dr. P. S. John, Dr. Girija, Dr. Asha K Raj, Dr. Jalaja, Dr. George Thomas and Dr. Saji Gomez talked about new advancements in agriculture and other related fields during the orientation session.

Shri. Ravunni addressing the Orientation session

Dr. P. S. John, Prof. speaking in the orientation session

The participants of the programme

Dr. T. K. Kunhamu, Assoc. Prof. delivering orientation on Agroforestry – Its Scope and Importance